

The 2021 Multiply Vineyard Summit will be happening virtually February 4 & 5! This online experience will help attendees address their current needs and questions and will envision and empower them to take the next steps in bringing the power and presence of God to the communities around them.

The conference will include main session talks from great speakers and practical breakout sessions where attendees will interact with others facing similar challenges. Each attendee will receive a playbook with practical resources and next steps and will get plugged into a long term community with future opportunities to interact and grow together.

Be empowered for what God is doing now and all he's calling you to next at the 2021 Multiply Vineyard Summit. Learn more and register at mvsummit.org.

Invite to Potential Planter

I wanted to extend an invite to the Multiply Vineyard Summit 2021 which will be happening on virtually February 4 & 5, 2021. I would love to have you join me in participating.

I know that it may seem like a strange time to consider pressing into discerning a calling to ministry or starting a new church, but I firmly believe that God's kingdom is still at work.

The Multiply Vineyard Summit is a great opportunity to learn from current church planters and pastors and to be inspired by some incredible speakers like Derwin Gray, Dave Ferguson, Ricky Jenkins, and Jay Pathak.

You'll have the chance to connect with others discerning their calling or preparing to plant in break-out groups and we'll leave with a playbook with practical next steps and exercises to help you in the discernment process.

I'd love to have you prayerfully consider attending. Feel free to reach out to me with any questions.
